

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives wholeheartedly believe that a successful marriage forms a firm foundation for a lifetime of happiness and security and wish to salute an outstanding Missouri couple whose union confirms that philosophy; and

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight “R.” Miller, treasured residents of Buffalo, Missouri, will commemorate the splendid occasion of their Sixty-sixth Wedding Anniversary on December 24, 2003; and

Whereas, joined in marriage before the eyes of the Lord on December 24, 1937, Dwight "Johnny" Miller and Wilma Kathryn Flanagan began their lives together as husband and wife after a memorable wedding ceremony at the home of the groom’s sister and brother-in-law, Marjorie and Victor Young; and

Whereas, a proud father and caring husband, Mr. Miller provided a safe and secure future for his loved ones through many years of tireless endeavor as a farmer, while Mrs. Miller enjoyed her family immensely and further distinguished herself through employment opportunities as an educator and membership in the Jolly Workers Club; and

Whereas, devout members of the First Baptist Church of Buffalo who derive a tremendous amount of satisfaction from gardening and working in the yard, Johnny and Wilma Miller attribute their sixty-six years of wedded success and happiness to their strong sense of faith and family, the foundation upon which they have planted the seeds of their love and respect for each other in the generations to follow which include their two children, Linda Brown and Larry Miller (deceased); their son-in-law, Jim Brown; and their four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, lifelong residents of Dallas County who have been honored with the “Yard of the Month” award three times, Johnny and Wilma Miller have remained devoted life partners and have put forth a tremendous amount of effort to ensure the sanctity of the vows they took so very long ago:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in a thunderous round of applause for Johnny and Wilma Miller upon the glorious celebration of their Sixty-sixth Wedding Anniversary, and in wishing them tremendous peace, prosperity, and contentment as they continue their journey along life’s path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Dwight “Johnny” Miller, as a measure of our esteem for them.
